Debt Acknowledgement Agreement

Washington law requires the following information to be supplied to each student enrolling in a private vocational school licensed under RCW 28C.10. One copy of this notice bearing original signatures must be attached by the school as an addenda to that individual's enrollment agreement and a copy must be provided to the enrollee by the school.

Acknowledgment By Enrollee:

1. I understand that any agreement for training I enter into with this school is legally binding.
2. I understand that I must repay any loans I take out in order to attend this school.
3. I understand that any agreement I enter into will not be binding or take effect for at least five days, excluding Sundays and holidays, after signing, unless I start classes sooner.

Acknowledgment By School:

Prior to being enrolled in this school, the applicant whose name and signature appears above has been made aware of the legal obligations he/she takes on by entering into a contract for training. Those discussions included cautions by the school about acquiring an excessive debt burden that might become difficult to repay given employment opportunities and average starting salaries in his/her chosen occupation.
